Barlow's Indigo Blue.

Dealers and consumers of the above celebrated Wash Blue will please take notice that the Labels are Altered to RED.

It is warranted to color more water than twice the same quantity of Indigo, and to go much further than any other Wash Blue in the market. It dissolves perfectly clear and does not settle on the clothes as most of the other makes do. One box dissolved in a half pint of water, will make as good a liquid blue as any that is made, at one third the cost.

As it is retailed at the same price as the imitations and inferior articles, housekeepers will find it very much to their advantage to ask for Barlow's and take no other. All Blue put up after this date with Barlow's name on it is an imitation, except that put up by Alfred Wilbraham. S. W. HUBBELL, Agent,

DAILY GAZETTE.

FRENCH STATESMEN ON THE REBELLION.

An Eloquent Letter from Messrs De Gasparin, Laboulaye, Martin and Cochin.

II.—You will crush the revolt, gentlemen. You will succeed—such is our belief—in re-establishing the Union. It will emerge from the bloody trial stronger, more free, more worthy of the noble destiny to which God summons it.

It has been demonstrated to us, it is true, that the re-establishment of the Union was impossible; but was it not also demonstrated to us, and by irrefutable argument, that you would be always and of necessity defeated; that you would never know how to handle a musket; that recruiting would become impracticable; that your finances would be exhausted; that your loans would not be taken; that you would become bankrupt; that riots would ravage your cities; that your government would be overthrown? You have given to all these oracles the simplest and best answer. You will reply in the same manner to those who assert that the re-establishment of the Union is impossible.

What seems really impossible is not to restore the Union. Where draw the line between the North and South? How maintain between them a state of peace, or even of truce? How shall slavery and liberty live side by side? How, moreover, restrain the South from European protectorates, and by what means arrest the frightful consequences of such protectorates? Geographically, morally, politically separation would create an unnatural situation, a situation violent and hazardous, where each would live, arms in hand, waiting for the hour of conflict.

We have full faith, gentlemen, that such a trial will be spared to you. It is not that we overlook the difficulties which still remain for you to overcome; they are great, greater perhaps than we imagine. War has its vicissitudes, and you may perhaps be yet called upon to pass through periods of ill-fortune. Yet one fact always remains, and shows on which side the final triumph will be found, supposing that there be no foreign intervention. The flag of the Union has not for two years paused in its advance. It floats to-day over the soil of every revolted State without exception. The South has had its victories—it has never gained an inch of ground. The North has had its defeats—it has never fallen back. Master to-day of the entire course of the Mississippi, master of the Border States and of Louisiana, all that remains is to stifle the revolt in the narrow territory where it first burst forth and back to which it has been driven. We believe that you will succeed in this; for Europe, the only hope of the South, seems now little disposed to give her aid.

In short, the rebellion is already reduced to such narrow proportions that should it ever become a distinct confederation, accepted as such from weariness of war, the Confederacy thus created will not be born with the functions of life. Neither European recognition nor your own could give it a serious chance of duration. It would end in a return to you. But we delight to believe the re-establishment of the Union less distant. And, in the presence of that prospect which thrills our hearts with joy, permit us, as your friends, to offer you some sincere advice. The dangers of victory, you are aware, are not less than those of the combat. We give you, therefore, our loyal, frank opinion, sure that in the main it will agree with your own, and feeling, also, that these communications between us have an aim more serious than a simple exchange of words of sympathy.

We hold it to be of the first importance that the cause of the war should not survive the war; that your real foe, slavery, shall not remain upon the field. We have often asked ourselves these last three years why God permitted the prolongation of this bloody struggle. Was it not that the real issue might present itself with perfect clearness? Conquering earlier, the Federal Government would, perhaps, have been led to make concessions, to enter anew upon the fatal path of compromise. To-day, all eyes, not, willingly blind, see clearly. The New York riot, breaking out at an appointed day to aid the invasion of Lee, and falling instantly upon the negro in a way to show to every witness of its cowardly ferocity what kind of spirit animated certain friends of the South—the New York riot was a supreme warning to your country. Your line of action is clearly traced. So long as anything of slavery remains, there will be a cause of antagonism to the bosom of the Union. There must be no longer any question of slavery. It must be so ordered and settled as never to return. An amendment to the Constitution to this end must be proposed and adopted before the return of the States.

The condition of the free blacks must also be secured against the iniquities which they have so long endured. No more plans of colonization abroad, no more disabling laws, no more inequality. Those whom you have armed, who fought so bravely before the walls of Port Hudson and Fort Wagner, can never be other than citizens. Leave the problem of the races to its own solution—the most natural solutions are always the best. Under the rule of the common law, the free blacks of the South and of the North will find their legitimate place in your society, of which they will become useful members, honorable and honored.

In thus ordering in a definite manner all that relates to slavery and the colored race you will have done more than is generally imagined for the lasting pacification of the South. What remains for you to do on this point may be stated in three words—Moderation, Generosity, Liberty.

There can be no question, as you have often said, of an occupation of the South, of reducing the Southern States to the condition of provinces, where the conqueror will maintain his garrison, and the public life will be suspended. Save in the districts yet ravaged by guerrillas and in the heart of which the Federal troops must finish their work, victory will everywhere bring with the re-establishment of the Union the re-establishment as promptly as possible of constitutional rights. You hope, gentlemen, that those whom you conquor to-day will to-morrow meet you in debate, and you will accept in all their truth, the struggle of the press, of the legislative hall, and of the ballot, which will replace the strife of the battle-field.

We all feel it is much better that you should have to encounter difficulties fruitful of liberty, than that you should seek for yourselves the deceitful advantages of a

More patients were cured by the vapor bath, of Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, Bronchitis, Asthma, Chronic Sore-throat, Incipient Consumption, and that class of diseases known by the name of Female Weakness, than by all other known remedies put together. There is no remedy so well adapted to the cure of skin diseases and so certain in its effects as the vapor bath. No doubt but it will be found an efficient remedy in Diptheria.

Barlow's Indigo Blue.

Dealers and consumers of the above celebrated Wash Blue will please take notice that the Labels are Altered to RED.

IT is warranted to color more water than twice the same quantity of Indigo, and to go much further than any other Wash Blue in the market. It dissolves perfectly clear and does not settle on the clothes as most of the other makes do. One box dissolved in a half pint of water, will make as good a liquid blue as any that is made, at one third the cost.

As it is retailed at the same price as the imitations and inferior articles, housekeepers will find it very much to their advantage to ask for Barlow's and take no other. All Blue put up after this date with Barlow's name on it is an imitation, except that put up by Alfred Wilthberger.

DAILY GAZETTE.

FRENCH STATESMEN ON THE REBELLION.

An Eloquent Letter from Messrs De Gasparin, Laboulaye, Martin and Cochin.

II.—You will crush the revolt, gentlemen. You will succeed—such is our belief—in re-establishing the Union. It will emerge from the bloody trial stronger, more free, more worthy of the noble destiny to which God summons it.

It has been demonstrated, to us, it is true, that the re-establishment of the Union was impossible; but was it not also demonstrated to us, and by irrefutable argument, that you would be always and of necessity defeated; that you would never know how to handle a musket; that recruiting would become impracticable; that your finances would be exhausted; that your loans would not be taken; that you would become bankrupt; that riots would ravage your cities; that your government would be overthrown? You have given to all these oracles the simplest and best answer. You will reply in the same manner to those who assert that the re-establishment of the Union is impossible.

What seems really impossible is not to restore the Union. Where draw the line between the North and South? How maintain, between them a state of peace, or even of truce? How shall slavery and liberty live side by side? How, moreover, restrain the South from European protectorates, and by what means arrest the frightful consequences of such protectorates? Geographically, morally, politically separation would create an unnatural situation, a situation violent and hazardous, where each would live, arms in hand, waiting for the hour of conflict.

We have full faith, gentlemen, that such a trial will be spared to you. It is not that we overlook the difficulties which still remain for you to overcome; they are great, greater perhaps than we imagine. War has its vicissitudes, and you may perhaps be yet called upon to pass through periods of ill-fortune. Yet one fact always remains, and shows on which side the final triumph will be found, supposing that there be no foreign intervention. The flag of the Union has not for two years paused in its advance. It floats to-day over the soil of every revolted State without exception. The South has had its victories—it has never gained an inch of ground. The North has had its defeats—it has never fallen back. Master to-day of the entire course of the Mississippi, master of the Border States and of Louisiana, all that remains is to stifle the revolt in the narrow territory where it first burst forth and back to which it has been driven. We believe that you will succeed in this; for Europe, the only hope of the South, seems now little disposed to give her aid.

In short, the rebellion is already reduced to such narrow proportions that should it ever become a distinct confederation, accepted as such from weariness of war, the Confederacy thus created will not be born with the functions of life. Neither European recognition nor your own could give it a serious chance of duration. It would end in a return to you. But we delight to believe the re-establishment of the Union less distant. And, in the presence of that prospect which thrills our hearts with joy, permit us, as your friends, to offer you some sincere advice. The dangers of victory, you are aware, are not less than those of the combat. We give you, therefore, our loyal, frank opinion, sure that in the main it will agree with your own, and feeling, also, that these communications between us have an aim more serious than a simple exchange of words of sympathy.

We hold it to be of the first importance that the cause of the war should not survive the war; that your real foe, slavery, shall not remain upon the field. We have often asked ourselves these last three years why God permitted the prolongation of this bloody struggle. Was it not that the real issue might present itself with perfect clearness? Conquering earlier, the Federal Government would, perhaps, have been led to make concessions, to enter anew upon the fatal path of compromise. To-day, all eyes, not willingly blind, see clearly. The New York riot, breaking out at an appointed day to aid the invasion of Lee, and falling instantly upon the negro in a way to show to every witness of its cowardly ferocity what kind of spirit animated certain friends of the South—the New York riot was a supreme warning to your country. Your line of action is clearly traced. So long as anything of slavery remains, there will be a cause of antagonism to the bosom of the Union. There must be no longer any question of slavery. It must be so ordered and settled as never to return. An amendment to the Constitution to this end must be proposed and adopted before the return of the States.

The condition of the free blacks must also be secured against the iniquities which they have so long endured. No more plans of colonization abroad, no more disabling laws, no more inequality. Those whom you have armed, who fought so bravely before the walls of Port Hudson and Fort Wagner, can never be other than citizens. Leave the problem of the races to its own solution—the most natural solutions are always the best. Under the rule of the common law, the free blacks of the South and of the North will find their legitimate place in your society, of which they will become useful members, honorable and honored.

In thus ordering in a definite manner all that relates to slavery and the colored race you will have done more than is generally imagined for the lasting pacification of the South.—What remains for you to do on this point may be stated in three words—Moderation, Generosity, Liberty.

There can be no question, as you have often said, of an occupation of the South, of reducing the Southern States to the condition of provinces, where the conqueror will maintain his garrison, and the public life will be suspended. Save in the districts yet ravaged by guerrillas and in the heart of which the Federal troops must finish their work, victory will everywhere bring with the re-establishment of the Union the re-establishment as promptly as possible of constitutional rights. You hope, gentlemen, that those whom you conquer to-day will to-morrow meet you in debate, and you will accept in all their truth, the struggle of the press, of the legislative hall, and of the ballot, which will replace the strife of the battle-field.

We all feel it is much better that you should have to encounter difficulties fruitful of liberty, than that you should seek for yourselves the deceitful advantages of a dictatorial regime. To apply to the South an exceptional rule would be, alas, quite easy. It would be easy also to pronounce the death penalty, to outlaw, to execute confiscation bills; but in treading this path of vulgar tyranny you would sacrifice two things—your high renown in the present, a lasting Union with the South in the future.

He has attended lectures at three different medical colleges, and had opportunities of witnessing extensive clinical practice, besides spending several months at the Elmira Water Cure, N. More patients were cured by the vapor bath, of Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, Bronchitis, Asthma, Chronic Sore-throat, Incipient Consumption, and that class of diseases known by the name of Female Weakness, than by all other known remedies put together. There is no remedy so well adapted to the cure of skin diseases and so certain in its effects as the vapor bath. No doubt but it will be found an efficient remedy in Diptheria.

But if on the other hand, you show the world the novel spectacle of victory without reprisals, of liberties strong enough to survive civil war; if your constitution remain, and slavery alone fall in such a conflict; if on the morrow of the struggle the law remain supreme; if elections for the Senate and House of Representatives be again open as in the old time, if the representatives of the Southern States re appear at Washington; if taking the oath to be faithful to the Union and to support the modified constitution they find themselves on a footing of perfect equality with the representatives of the North; if it be permitted to them to attack and embarrass the government, you will have won the most glorious of victories, and assured to your country the best chance of prosperity and greatness.

Accept, gentlemen, in the advice which we tender to you, a proof of our esteem. It is not of every government, it is not of every people that such things can be asked. Protracted civil wars tend to arbitrary customs, stir up passions and hates, and at last engender a development of military power and irresponsible authority which generally hinders a return to control, to free opinion and to strict letter of the law. We honor the United States enough to believe that they will be capable of setting us this, too, after so many other examples.

The moderation which we hope for from you at home, we look for also from you abroad. Assuredly on the morrow of the submission of the South there will not be wanting a class of persons eager to recall to you wrongs, real or fancied, suffered at the hands of this or that power. They will point to your armies and disposable fleet. They will prove to you that a foreign war is perhaps the surest way to draw together the two sections so lately hostile. They will tell you that a common enmity, common dangers, are the cement needed to strengthen your shattered edifice.

You will not believe them, gentlemen. You will feel that after these jars it is needful, before all else, to restore to America peace and liberty. You will not seek new adventures, and thus lengthen the temptation of dictatorships, the peril of exceptional rule.

You will fear a return to the aggressive policy which, with its invasions and turbulence, the influence of the South forced upon you, the day, when, to assure the extension of slavery, it awakened in your hearts a wicked covetousness and pushed you almost to the violation of the law of nations. Your glory will be to take the opposite of those violent declarations, of those filibustering expeditions, of those unscrupulous ambitions.

The temptations which a great army excites are of the class most difficult to repress. May you not hesitate to reduce your forces after peace! Not only your material prosperity, but your very liberty, is involved in disarming, in a reduction of your expenses, and a return to the old idea of small armies and small budgets.

But we do not deceive ourselves. Your small armies, do what you may, will be large compared with those of three years ago. Your military education is completed; you have replied but too well to those who smiled at the recital of your battles of 1861. You have learned but too quickly to face death and to kill, and what you have learned you will not unlearn. You will not return to your former situation.

But while we do not expect to see your effective force at ten thousand men, we do hope that effective forces which are now numbered by hundreds of thousands will not long be witnessed on American soil.

III.—Courage! You have before you one of the most noble works, the most sublime which can be accomplished here below—a work in the success of which we are as interested as yourselves—a work, the success of which will be the honor and the consolation of our time.

This generation will have seen nothing more grand than the abolition of slavery (in destroying it with you, you destroy it everywhere,) and the energetic uprising of a people which, in the midst of its growing prosperity, was visibly sinking under the weight of the tyranny of the South, the complicity of the North, odious laws and compromises.

Now, at the cost of immense sacrifices, you have stood up against the evil; you have chosen rather to pour out your blood and your dollars than to descend further the slope of degradation, where rich, united, powerful, you were sure to lose that which is far nobler than wealth, or union, or power.

Well, Europe begins to understand, willingly or unwillingly, what you have done. In France, in England, everywhere your cause gains ground, and be it said for the honor of the nineteenth century, the obstacle which our ill will and our evil passions could not overcome, the obstacle which the intrigues of the South could not surmount, is an idea, a principle. Hatred of slavery has been your champion in the old world. A poor champion seemingly. Laughed at, scorned, it seems, weak and lonely. But what matters it; ere the account be closed principles will stand for something, and conscience, in all human affairs, will have the last word.

This, gentlemen, is what we would say to you in the name of all who with us, and better than ourselves, defend your cause in Europe. Your words have cheered us; may ours in turn cheer you! You have yet to cross many a dark valley. More than once the impossibility of success will be demonstrated to you; more than once in the face of some military check or political difficulty, the cry will be raised that all is lost. What matters it to you? Strengthen your cause daily by daily making it more just, and fear not; there is a God above.

We love to contemplate in hope the noble future which seems to stretch itself before you. The day you emerge at last from the anguish of civil war, and you will surely come out freed from the odious institution which corrupted the public manners and degraded your domestic as well as your foreign policy—that day your whole country, South as well as North, and the South perhaps more fully than the North, will enter upon a wholly new prosperity. European emigration will hasten to your ports, and will learn the road to those whom until now it has feared to approach. Cultivation, now abandoned, will renew its yield. Liberty—for these are her miracles—will revivify by her touch the soil which slavery had rendered barren.

Then there will be born unto you a greatness nobler and more stable than the old, for in this greatness there will be no sacrifice of justice.

THE NEWS.

The news from Charleston is of a more interesting character than for some time past. It is said that an improvement has been made in the Greek fire shell by which Admiral Dahlgreen can destroy the city, whenever he sees fit. The question with us is, why he does not see fit at once. Several confederate iron-clads are reported to have made their appearance about the harbor, freshened after our own iron-clads.

Secretary Chase is about to issue a new description of government securities, similar to the 5-20 bonds, but with longer time to run.

Quite an extensive fire has occured in New York.

The old congressional committee on the conduct of the war is to be renewed, and a new committee on emancipation is to be created.

The report of Longstreet's intended reappearance before Knoxville, which we inadvertantly neglected to notice yesterday does not seem to be confirmed.

The reported overtures of some of the rebel Generals, under authority of the Richmond government to sell cotton, looks like a canard.

The Legislature.

Our state legislature meets to-morrow. It is expected that the contest for the speakership of the assembly will be somewhat spirited, but as the Republicans have a working majority, (we hope they will be a majority of workers) an early organization may be expected. It has been the custom of the press, almost universally, so far as we have ever noted its expression, to urge short sessions of the legislature. Such being the case, it might seem stale and common place and an utter waste of words to allude to the subject, now at any length. But we cannot satisfy ourselves that we have discharged our duty as journalists, without one more effort in this direction. If as heretofore, it shall have no effect upon the legislature, it may still serve to call attention to the matter, and in time so direct public opinion that future members will be compelled to pledge themselves for short sessions, and to faithfully adhere to their pledges. The fact is we have been legislated to death. Over legislation has been the crying evil ever since Wisconsin had an existence either as a state or territory, and it has been carried to such an extent that people have learned to endure it as a sort of necessary and unavoidable burden. Can we not have an agreeable change this winter? We have a large volume of statutes, with session laws enough since 1859 to produce another as large. We have to use the utmost circumspection in all proceedings in the courts, and all public business necessary to be performed according to law, lest the legislature having stolen a march of us, the statute under which we are acting may have become a nullity, and our whole proceeding thus rendered void. Do, friends, we entreat of you, let us get used to the laws. If they are not just the thing, let us try them long enough to find out what's the matter. We can get along with poor ones a while, better than to be subject to this constant and annoying change. If any person sends you up a draft of a bill to meet some special case, as is repeatedly done, scan its provisions with care, and if it is not calculated to benefit the public at large, give it the go by. As far as any way consistent ignore local legislation. Let county boards of supervisors be left to perform their full functions, they can do all the legislation necessary for their respective counties.

But let us not be understood to urge haste in the framing of laws actually necessary to be passed. It is a trite adage, but none the less invariably true, that whatever is worth doing, is worth doing well. If there is any thing further needed in the way of an effective and hearty co-operation of our state with our national government in the work of finishing up the rebellion, it is the requirement of patriotism as well as of duty that such business take precedence of all other, and that it be properly, promptly, and faithfully done. And as a subject intimately related to this, by no means let the legislature neglect any needed appropriation to the families of those who have nobly and disinterestedly gone forth to battle for and sustain the cause of their country and of its free government.

To sum up these hasty and incoherent suggestions, we do sincerely believe that a session of from four to six weeks is ample time to accomplish all the legislation the people need or want. What is not comprised in that will be ten thousand times worse than useless—it will be absolutely injurious and hurtful. Will not our friends then, we ask it in the name of, and for the people at large—begin the very first day of the session, to make their calculations for the shortest possible term; make a resolution and act up to it every day and every hour that they will do up the legitimate business of the session at the earliest practicable moment, and then adjourn at once.

Letter from Fortress Monroe.

We are permitted to copy the following extracts from a private letter from Mr. H. R. Clum, a young gentleman well and favorably known in this city and its neighborhood, who left here in the 5th Regiment, and who is now in Gen. Butler's department, to Judge Gibbs, of this city:

FORT MONROE, Va., Dec. 24, 1863.

FRIEND GIBBS: Your letter of questions, of the 14th inst., was received in due time and perused with pleasure, and not only with pleasure, but with a slight sprinkling of amusement at the various questions asked by you, some of which our wisest statesmen, or most celebrated politicians, are unable satisfactorily to answer. Nevertheless, I was very happy to hear from you direct, and to hear that you and yours were enjoying your usual health.

* * * * *

And now to answer, or rather give you my views on the different subjects contained in your questions, which I will do in as short a manner as possible. The end of the war will be when the confederate army is scattered to the four winds—scattered so effectually as to utterly prevent the future consolidation of it—and not before. I have no doubt but that the negroes, or a majority of them, will fight, and after becoming thoroughly disciplined will fight well. They can be disciplined, I think, quicker than our volunteers, for the very reason, that the sooner a soldier is made, in a measure, a machine, the sooner he becomes disciplined. The negroes have always been mere machines from the force of circumstances, and consequently can sooner be brought under strict discipline than our volunteers, who, as a general thing, have been accustomed to think and act for themselves. I think we ought not to trouble ourselves at present with what is to be done with them after the war; let us end the war first and attend to such things afterwards. I believe in using the negroes as soldiers, as I do in using any and every other means in our power to crush this rebellion; and I also believe in using them in front, that is, in the front rank, side by side with our white soldiers, and not in places where they are never called upon to do any fighting. If the end of this war is to see the total emancipation of all slaves in this country, as I believe it will, I think they (the slaves) ought to do something towards gaining their freedom, and that that something should be fighting. I do not believe the bottom is yet knocked out of Jeff's rebellion, but I do think it is terribly battered, and that with a few more Grants in the field, not only the bottom, but the sides likewise, would soon be knocked into flinders.

The papers and speakers you are speaking about, have had the rebel States exhausted and starved to death a hundred times since the war commenced, and I should think, by this time, that such talk would have but little weight on the minds of thinking men. In July last, I accompanied two expeditions, or raids, from Newbern, N. C., inland as far as the railroad from Wilmington to Goldsboro. Every cultivated field on both routes taken at those times, was planted with corn. I have no doubt the whole South is in the same condition. Men can live and fight on "hog and hominy"; and what men can do—so long as their leaders can control and influence them—the men in the confederate army will do; there is no use in denying the fact; they can and will fight, though their boast at the commencement, that "one Southerner could whip five Yankees," has been crammed down their throats on many a hard fought battle-field. On the two raids I have mentioned I did not hear one man, woman or child utter a Union sentiment; but I did hear many a woman rail and curse at the "Yankees." Very few men were seen; many of the dwellings were deserted, and where one was found inhabited, there would be from half a dozen to a dozen and more women and children in charge of an old man, too old to do military duty, showing that nearly every man in the district through which we passed was in the confederate army.—There must, however, be some Union men and quite a strong Union sentiment prevailing in some parts of North Carolina, judging from the "Raleigh Standard."; but so far, I have been unable, personally, to discover the smallest spark of a Union sentiment in any portion of the South in which I have as yet been. But see here. I think I have given you my views and opinions (which, by the way, are very valuable) on as many different subjects as I am called upon to. I do not know how far they coincide with yours, for you, in lawyer-like style, ask all the questions and answer none; or, in other words, ask the opinion of others, reserving your own; but, as both our opinions will have no great effect, or tend to bring this war to an end or prolong it, I think no harm will be done.

I am glad to hear that Gen. Butler is so great a favorite with you all. He is equally as great with the loyal inhabitants in this district; but could the secesh sympathizers—and there are quite a number still in Norfolk and Portsmouth—have their way, they would, I fear, make a short shrift of him. The General, however, cares as little for them as he does for the Southern newspapers. He is bringing them down to his views in the present struggle, and if they will persist in being so blind as not to see things in the right light, they can take their carpet-bags and go where they belong. For my part, I wish every rebel sympathizer, or copperhead, in the country could be sent over the line; they have no business inside our lines. I would not allow them the privilege of even taking the oath of allegiance, for I do not believe that one-tenth of them are honest about it, but look upon it in the same light as they do with all other agreements and obligations with the "Yankees," to be broken the first opportunity that offers to render their brethren a favor. I do not know whether you have ever seen Gen. Butler's orders in reference to raising negro troops in this department, and bringing the rebel sympathizers to their senses, or not, but thinking you may not, I will enclose them herewith for your perusal. Under his orders concerning negro troops, there has been in less than three weeks, one regiment of cavalry and nearly another raised at this place, Norfolk and Portsmouth, with a few from Newbern. But I must draw this to a close. I fear I have already tired you with this long letter.

Yours truly, H. R. CLUM.

Deceased is pretty generally known throughout the country, as the warrior who captured Black Hawk. We do not know his age, but he must have seen his eightieth year.

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12,

The Tribune Morris Island correspondent says the rebels had in Charleston harbor ten iron-clad steamers, close imitations of New Ironsides and Dunderberg. Charleston takes fire and burns apace from the effect of the bombardment. Fires always spread and burn hours at a time. Last Sunday they burned eight hours.

In one mass of obstructions hauled away from the head of Morris Island are 16 bars of iron rails removed by natural cause. Nothing now prevents the taking of Charleston when the Admiral wills it. In a postscript the correspondent adds, the rebels have three iron-clads building at Charleston. Two of them on the Dunderburg plan.

On January 1st the United States steamer Nipsic destroyed a schooner laden with turpentine, at Murrill's Inlet, 6 miles north of Charleston.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says the house military committee will, within a day or two report Washburne's bill, authorizing the President to appoint a Lieutenant General.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.

There was a destructive fire last night on Beekman street. No. 55, occupied by Buckley Bros. & Co., paper warehouse, and No. 53, occupied by Lanser & Goxdevough manufacturers of cutters, total loss. No. 570 occupied by Bassett & Ware, almost entirely destroyed. Loss at least $200,000. The buildings destroyed were five story marble fronts, extending 175 feet in depth to Ann street. The buildings on the opposite side of Ann street were somewhat damaged and tenants compelled to flee for their lives. Whipple File manufacturing Co. occupied a portion of No. 53.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.

A prize fight between Keeting and Hallywood came off yesterday at Sheep's Head Bay, Long Island. Forty-seven rounds were fought, lasting over an hour, when the police appeared, arresting one Pollywood and two others. Both men were considerably battered. The referee will decide in favor of Keeting, on account of his antagonist biting him on the arm and shoulder.

The World's Washington dispatch says the republican senatorial caucus agreed to revise the report of the old committee on the conduct of the war, who will be empowered also to inquire into the expediency of the war. They agreed to raise a committee on emancipation, to whom all papers or subjects are to be referred.

It is understood that Senator McDougal's resolution declaring war with France in certain contingences will sleep their last sleep in the Senate committee on foreign relations. It is said that Mr. Chase contemplates issuing 10 40 bonds when the present series of 5-20s are exhausted, and in order to meet the demand upon him for the payment of veteran bounties he will resort to a loan and continued issues of five per cent. interest-bearing notes.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.

The Times Washington correspondent says at least five major Generals and over 20 Brigadiers will be restored to civil life by consent of the Senate. General Meade, although absent is in constant communication with the army of the Potomac and commands it by telegraph.

The Herald's Foley Island correspondent says Colonel Bell's experiments to obviate the explosion of Greek fire shells to the proper moment, have succeeded. It is not improbable that a persistent bombardment of Charleston will soon be opened; no one doubts our ability to destroy the city whenever we desire.

Gunboat Huron has captured an anglo rebel schooner from Nassau with salt, in Dolery Sound, Ga.

NEW YORK, January 12.

A fleet of 9 small draft gunboats for Admiral Farragut, carrying two and three rifled guns each, will sail in a few days.

The Herald's dispatch contained an intercepted rebel letter of Dec. 31st, which says Longstreet's forces are with Lee, and the latter has returned and is about to consumate a series of maneuvres and albeit bloody days.

The writer says the day cannot be far off when we shall embrace each other in Maryland in the old homestead in Baltimore, beneath the victorious cause of the free and recognized south.

The Herald's army of the Potomac despatch says.—Commissaries are issuing undiminished quantities of rations, which proves that the army has not been depleted by furloughs. About 5000 new soldiers arrived to-day.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says.—No orders are yet issued for the removal of prisoners to Gen. Butlers' department. It is believed the house committee on elections will report against the cases of gentlemen claiming seats from East Virginia. John Hog, assistant secretary of the president, has been appointed assistant Adjutant General with rank of Maj. to report to Gen. Gilmore.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.

HOUSE.—Mr. Wilson reported from the judiciary committee a bill changing the places of holding Circuit and District Courts of East Tennessee. Carried.

Mr. Wilson also reported the bill defining the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims. The bill is to restrict the Court from acting on claims for property destroyed or appropriated by the military or naval authorities during the war, but referring these matters to Congress.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 21.

Major General Grant and staff arrived here last night from Knoxville.

The weather this morning is moderating. Thermomer 24 deg. The river is full of floating ice. Navigation is almost wholly impeded. There is a prospect of a general thaw.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 12.

The Republican's Memphis correspondent says that two important propositions have recently been made by the rebel authorities to the Federal Government:—1st. A Quartermaster of the confederate army at Herando, acting by the authority of Richmond officials, has offered to sell to General Grant or Hurlbut all the cotton remaining in a certain district outside the Federal lines. This offer embraces 15,000 bales and is all confiscated cotton, and greenbacks will be taken for it. It is said that Hurlbut favors the purchase and recommends it to be carried into effect.

It is stated that Kirby Smith recently authorized a messenger to Washington to propose to the Federal authorities to furnish every requisite authority to get out all the cotton in that portion of Red River and Washio district within the rebel control, the money for the same to be paid to the class of officers from the amnesty proposed by President Lincoln, they to retire from the rebel army and go to Mexico. The Republican says editorially of the correctness of this information, we have no doubt, for it comes from a source likely to have the best means of information, also that it would involve the complete disbandonment of the rebel forces in Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, and the immediate return of those states into the union.

dictatorial regime. To apply to the South an exceptional rule would be, alas, quite easy. It would be easy also to pronounce the death penalty, to outlaw, to execute confiscation bills; but in treading this path of vulgar tyranny you would sacrifice two things—your high renown in the present, a lasting Union with the South in the future.

But if on the other hand, you show the world the novel spectacle of victory without reprisals, of liberties strong enough to survive civil war; if your constitution remain, and slavery alone fall in such a conflict; if on the morrow of the struggle the law remain supreme; if elections for the Senate and House of Representatives be again open as in the old time, if the representatives of the Southern States re-appear at Washington; if taking the oath to be faithful to the Union and to support the modified constitution they find themselves on a footing of perfect equality with the representatives of the North; if it be permitted to them to attack and embarrass the government, you will have won the most glorious of victories, and assured to your country the best chance of prosperity and greatness.

Accept, gentlemen, in the advice which we tender to you, a proof of our esteem. It is not of every government, it is not of every people that such things can be asked. Protracted civil wars tend to arbitrary customs, stir up passions and hates, and at last engender a development of military power and irresponsible authority which generally hinders a return to control, to free opinion and to strict letter of the law. We honor the United States enough to believe that they will be capable of setting us this, too, after so many other examples.

The moderation which we hope for from you at home, we look for also from you abroad. Assuredly on the morrow of the submission of the South there will not be wanting a class of persons eager to recall to you wrongs, real or fancied, suffered at the hands of this or that power. They will point to your armies and disposable fleet. They will prove to you that a foreign war is perhaps the surest way to draw together the two sections so lately hostile. They will tell you that a common enmity, common dangers, are the cement needed to strengthen your shattered edifice.

You will not believe them, gentlemen. You will feel that after these jars it is needful, before all else, to restore to America peace and liberty. You will not seek new adventures, and thus lengthen the temptation of dictatorships, the peril of exceptional rule.

You will fear a return to the aggressive policy which, with its invasions and turbulence, the influence of the South forced upon you, the day, when, to assure the extension of slavery, it awakened in your hearts a wicked covetousness and pushed you almost to the violation of the law of nations. Your glory will be to take the opposite of those violent declarations, of those fillibustering expeditions, of those unscrupulous ambitions.

The temptations which a great army excites are of the class most difficult to repress. May you not hesitate to reduce your forces after peace! Not only your material prosperity, but your very liberty, is involved in disarming, in a reduction of your expenses, and a return to the old idea of small armies and small budgets.

But we do not deceive ourselves. Your small armies, do what you may, will be large compared with those of three years ago. Your military education is completed; you have replied but too well to those who smiled at the recital of your battles of 1861. You have learned but too quickly to face death and to kill, and what you have learned you will not unlearn. You will not return to your former situation.

But while we do not expect to see your effective force at ten thousand men, we do hope that effective forces which are now numbered by hundreds of thousands will not long be witnessed on American soil.

III.—Courage! You have before you one of the most noble works, the most sublime which can be accomplished here below—a work in the success of which we are as interested as yourselves—a work, the success of which will be the honor and the consolation of our time.

This generation will have seen nothing more grand than the abolition of slavery (in destroying it with you, you destroy it everywhere,) and the energetic uprising of a people which, in the midst of its growing prosperity, was visibly sinking under the weight of the tyranny of the South, the complicity of the North, odious laws and compromises.

Now, at the cost of immense sacrifices, you have stood up against the evil; you have chosen rather to pour out your blood and your dollars than to descend further the slope of degradation, where rich, united, powerful, you were sure to lose that which is far nobler than wealth, or union, or power.

Well, Europe begins to understand, willingly or unwillingly, what you have done. In France, in England, everywhere your cause gains ground, and be it said for the honor of the nineteenth century, the obstacle which our ill will and our evil passions could not overcome, the obstacle which the intrigues of the South could not surmount, is an idea, a principle. Hatred of slavery has been your champion in the old world. A poor champion seemingly. Laughed at, scorned, it seems, weak and lonely. But what matters it; ere the account be closed principles will stand for something, and conscience, in all human affairs, will have the last word.

This, gentlemen, is what we would say to you in the name of all who with us, and better than ourselves, defend your cause in Europe. Your words have cheered us; may ours in turn cheer you! You have yet to cross many a dark valley. More than once the impossibility of success will be demonstrated to you; more than once in the face of some military check or political difficulty, the cry will be raised that all is lost. What matters it to you? Strengthen your cause daily by daily making it more just, and fear not; there is a God above.

We love to contemplate in hope the noble future which seems to stretch itself before you. The day you emerge at last from the anguish of civil war, and you will surely come out freed from the odious institution which corrupted the public manners and degraded your domestic as well as your foreign policy—that day your whole country, South as well as North, and the South perhaps more fully than the North, will enter upon a wholly new prosperity. European emigration will hasten to your ports, and will learn the road to those whom until now it has feared to approach. Cultivation, now abandoned, will renew its yield. Liberty—for these are her miracles—will revivify by her touch the soil which slavery had rendered barren.

Then there will be born unto you a greatness nobler and more stable than the old, for in this greatness there will be no sacrifice of justice.

THE NEWS.

The news from Charleston is of a more interesting character than for some time past. It is said that an improvement has been made in the Greek fire shell by which Admiral Dahlgreen can destroy the city, whenever he sees fit. The question with us is, why he does not see fit at once. Several confederate iron-clads are reported to have made their appearance about the harbor, fashioned after our own iron-clads.

Secretary Chase is about to issue a new description of government securities, similar to the 5-20 bonds, but with longer time to run.

Quite an extensive fire has occured in New York.

The old congressional committee on the conduct of the war is to be renewed, and a new committee on emancipation is to be created.

The report of Longstreet's intended reappearance before Knoxville, which we inadvertantly neglected to notice yesterday does not seem to be confirmed.

The reported overtures of some of the rebel Generals, under authority of the Richmond government to sell cotton, looks like a canard.

The Legislature.

Our state legislature meets to-morrow. It is expected that the contest for the speakership of the assembly will be somewhat spirited, but as the Republicans have a working majority, (we hope they will be a majority of workers) an early organization may be expected. It has been the custom of the press, almost universally, so far as we have ever noted its expression, to urge short sessions of the legislature. Such being the case, it might seem stale and common place and an utter waste of words to allude to the subject now at any length. But we cannot satisfy ourselves that we have discharged our duty as journalists, without one more effort in this direction. If as heretofore, it shall have no effect upon the legislature, it may still serve to call attention to the matter, and in time so direct public opinion that future members will be compelled to pledge themselves for short sessions, and to faithfully adhere to their pledges. The fact is we have been legislated to death. Over legislation has been the crying evil ever since Wisconsin had an existence either as a state or territory, and it has been carried to such an extent that people have learned to endure it as a sort of necessary and unavoidable burden. Can we not have an agreeable change this winter? We have a large volume of statutes, with session laws enough since 1859 to produce another as large. We have to use the utmost circumspection in all proceedings in the courts, and all public business necessary to be performed according to law, lest the legislature having stolen a march of us, the statute under which we are acting may have become a nullity, and our whole proceeding thus rendered void. Do, friends, we entreat of you, let us get used to the laws. If they are not just the thing, let us try them long enough to find out what's the matter. We can get along with poor ones a while, better than to be subject to this constant and annoying change. If any person sends you up a draft of a bill to meet some special case, as is repeatedly done, scan its provisions with care, and if it is not calculated to benefit the public at large, give it the go by. As far as any way consistent ignore local legislation. Let county boards of supervisors be left to perform their full functions, they can do all the legislation necessary for their respective counties.

But let us not be understood to urge haste in the framing of laws actually necessary to be passed. It is a trite adage, but none the less invariably true, that whatever is worth doing, is worth doing well. If there is any thing further needed in the way of an effective and hearty co-operation of our state with our national government in the work of finishing up the rebellion, it is the requirement of patriotism as well as of duty that such business take precedence of all other, and that it be properly, promptly, and faithfully done. And as a subject intimately related to this, by no means let the legislature neglect any needed appropriation to the families of those who have nobly and disinterestedly gone forth to battle for and sustain the cause of their country and of its free government.

To sum up these hasty and incoherent suggestions, we do sincerely believe that a session of from four to six weeks is ample time to accomplish all the legislation the people need or want. What is not comprised in that will be ten thousand times worse than useless—it will be absolutely injurious and hurtful. Will not our friends then, we ask it in the name of, and for the people at large—begin the very first day of the session, to make their calculations for the shortest possible term; make a resolution and act up to it every day and every hour that they will do up the legitimate business of the session at the earliest practicable moment, and then adjourn at once.

Letter from Fortress Monroe.

We are permitted to copy the following extracts from a private letter from Mr. H. R. Clum, a young gentleman well and favorably known in this city and its neighborhood, who left here in the 5th Regiment, and who is now in Gen. Butler's department, to Judge Gibbs, of this city:

FORT MONROE, Va., Dec. 24, 1863.

FRIEND GIBBS: Your letter of questions, of the 14th inst., was received in due time and perused with pleasure, and not only with pleasure, but with a slight sprinkling of amusement at the various questions asked by you, some of which our wisest statesmen, or most celebrated politicians, are unable satisfactorily to answer. Nevertheless, I was very happy to hear from you direct, and to hear that you and yours were enjoying your usual health.

And now to answer, or rather give you my views on the different subjects contained in your questions, which I will do in as short a manner as possible. The end of the war will be when the confederate army is scattered to the four winds—scattered so effectually as to utterly prevent the future consolidation of it—and not before. I have no doubt but that the negroes, or a majority of them, will fight, and after becoming thoroughly disciplined will fight well. They can be disciplined, I think, quicker than our volunteers, for the very reason, that the sooner a soldier is made, in a measure, a machine, the sooner he becomes disciplined. The negroes have always been mere machines from the force of circumstances, and consequently can sooner be brought under strict discipline than our volunteers, who, as a general thing, have been accustomed to think and act for themselves. I think we ought not to trouble ourselves at present with what is to be done with them after the war; let us end the war first and attend to such things afterwards. I believe in using the negroes as soldiers, as I do in using any and every other means in our power to crush this rebellion; and I also believe in using them in front, that is, in the front rank, side by side with our white soldiers, and not in places where they are never called upon to do any fighting. If the end of this war is to see the total emancipation of all slaves in this country, as I believe it will, I think they (the slaves) ought to do something towards gaining their freedom, and that that something should be fighting. I do not believe the bottom is yet knocked out of Jeff's rebellion, but I do think it is terribly battered, and that with a few more Grants in the field, not only the bottom, but the sides likewise, would soon be knocked into flinders.

The papers and speakers you are speaking about, have had the rebel States exhausted and starved to death a hundred times since the war commenced, and I should think, by this time, that such talk would have but little weight on the minds of thinking men. In July last, I accompanied two expeditions, or raids, from Newbern, N. C., inland as far as the railroad from Wilmington to Goldsboro. Every cultivated field on both routes taken at those times, was planted with corn. I have no doubt the whole South is in the same condition. Men can live and fight on "hog and hominy"; and what men can do—so long as their leaders can control and influence them—the men in the confederate army will do; there is no use in denying the fact; they can and will fight, though their boast at the commencement, that "one Southerner could whip five Yankees," has been crammed down their throats on many a hard fought battle-field. On the two raids I have mentioned I did not hear one man, woman or child utter a Union sentiment; but I did hear many a woman rail and curse at the "Yankees." Very few men were seen; many of the dwellings were deserted, and where one was found inhabited, there would be from half a dozen to a dozen and more women and children in charge of an old man, too old to do military duty, showing that nearly every man in the district through which we passed was in the confederate army.—There must, however, be some Union men and quite a strong Union sentiment prevailing in some parts of North Carolina, judging from the "Raleigh Standard"; but so far, I have been unable, personally, to discover the smallest spark of a Union sentiment in any portion of the South in which I have as yet been. But see here. I think I have given you my views and opinions (which, by the way, are very valuable) on as many different subjects as I am called upon to. I do not know how far they coincide with yours, for you, in lawyer-like style, ask all the questions and answer none; or, in other words, ask the opinion of others, reserving your own; but, as both our opinions will have no great effect, or tend to bring this war to an end or prolong it, I think no harm will be done.

I am glad to hear that Gen. Butler is so great a favorite with you all. He is equally as great with the loyal inhabitants in this district; but could the secesh sympathizers—and there are quite a number still in Norfolk and Portsmouth—have their way, they would, I fear, make a short shrift of him. The General, however, cares as little for them as he does for the Southern newspapers. He is bringing them down to his views in the present struggle, and if they will persist in being so blind as not to see things in the right light, they can take their carpet-bags and go where they belong. For my part, I wish every rebel sympathizer, or copperhead, in the country could be sent over the line; they have no business inside our lines. I would not allow them the privilege of even taking the oath of allegiance, for I do not believe that one-tenth of them are honest about it, but look upon it in the same light as they do with all other agreements and obligations with the "Yankees," to be broken the first opportunity that offers to render their brethren a favor. I do not know whether you have ever seen Gen. Butler's orders in reference to raising negro troops in this department, and bringing the rebel sympathizers to their senses, or not, but thinking you may not, I will enclose them herewith for your perusal. Under his orders concerning negro troops, there has been in less than three weeks, one regiment of cavalry and nearly another raised at this place, Norfolk and Portsmouth, with a few from Newbern. But I must draw this to a close. I fear I have already tired you with this long letter.

Yours truly, H. R. CLUM.

The only particulars that we could learn in regard to the matter, was that he started from here for his home, which is about eight miles west of this city, and near Butte des Morts, on New Year's day, and this seems to be the last known of him until he was found yesterday, by the help of his dog, frozen to death in a snow drift within a few rods of his own door. Deceased is pretty generally known throughout the country, as the warrior who captured Black Hawk. We do not know his age, but he must have seen his eightieth year.

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.

The Tribune Morris Island correspondent says the rebels had in Charleston harbor ten iron-clad steamers, close imitations of New Ironsides and Dunderberg. Charleston takes fire and burns apace from the effect of the bombardment. Fires always spread and burn hours at a time. Last Sunday they burned eight hours.

In one mass of obstructions hauled away from the head of Morris Island are 16 bars of iron rails removed by natural cause. Nothing now prevents the taking of Charleston when the Admiral wills it. In a postscript the correspondent adds, the rebels have three iron-clads building at Charleston. Two of them on the Dunderburg plan.

On January 1st the United States steamer Nipsic destroyed a schooner laden with turpentine, at Murrill's Inlet, 6 miles north of Charleston.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says the house military committee will, within a day or two report Washburne's bill, authorizing the President to appoint a Lieutenant General.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.

There was a destructive fire last night on Beckman street. No. 55, occupied by Buckley Bros. & Co., paper warehouse, and No. 53, occupied by Lanser & Goxdevough manufacturers of cutters, total loss. No. 570 occupied by Bassett & Ware, almost entirely destroyed. Loss at least $200.000. The buildings destroyed were five story marble fronts, extending 175 feet in depth to Ann street. The buildings on the opposite side of Ann street were somewhat damaged and tenants compelled to flee for their lives. Whipple File manufacturing Co. occupied a portion of No. 53.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.

A prize fight between Keeting and Hallywood came off yesterday at Sheep's Head Bay, Long Island. Forty-seven rounds were fought, lasting over an hour, when the police appeared, arresting one Pollywood and two others. Both men were considerably battered. The referee will decide in favor of Keeting, on account of his antagonist biting him on the arm and shoulder.

The World's Washington dispatch says the republican senatorial caucus agreed to revise the report of the old committee on the conduct of the war, who will be empowered also to inquire into the expediency of the war. They agreed to raise a committee on emancipation, to whom all papers or subjects are to be referred.

It is understood that Senator McDougal's resolution declaring war with France in certain contingences will sleep their last sleep in the Senate committee on foreign relations. It is said that Mr. Chase contemplates issuing 10-40 bonds when the present series of 5-20s are exhausted, and in order to meet the demand upon him for the payment of veteran bounties he will resort to a loan and continued issues of five per cent. interest-bearing notes.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.

The Times Washington correspondent says at least five major Generals and over 20 Brigadiers will be restored to civil life by consent of the Senate. General Meade, although absent is in constant communication with the army of the Potomac and commands it by telegraph.

The Herald's Foley Island correspondent says Colonel Bell's experiments to obviate the explosion of Greek fire shells to the proper moment, have succeeded. It is not improbable that a persistent bombardment of Charleston will soon be opened; no one doubts our ability to destroy the city whenever we desire.

Gunboat Huron has captured an anglo rebel schooner from Nassau with salt, in Dolery Sound, Ga.

NEW YORK, January 12.

A fleet of 9 small draft gunboats for Admiral Farragut, carrying two and three rifled guns each, will sail in a few days.

The Herald's dispatch contained an intercepted rebel letter of Dec. 31st, which says Longstreet's forces are with Lee, and the latter has returned and is about to consumate a series of maneuvres and albeit bloody days.

The writer says the day cannot be far off when we shall embrace each other in Maryland in the old homestead in Baltimore, beneath the victorious cause of the free and recognized south.

The Herald's army of the Potomac despatch says.—Commissaries are issuing undiminished quantities of rations, which proves that the army has not been depleted by furloughs. About 5000 new soldiers arrived to-day.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says.—No orders are yet issued for the removal of prisoners to Gen. Butlers' department. It is believed the house committee on elections will report against the cases of gentlemen claiming seats from East Virginia. John Hog, assistant secretary of the president, has been appointed assistant Adjutant General with rank of Maj. to report to Gen. Gilmore.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.

HOUSE.—Mr. Wilson reported from the judiciary committee a bill changing the places of holding Circuit and District Courts of East Tennessee. Carried.

Mr. Wilson also reported the bill defining the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims. The bill is to restrict the Court from acting on claims for property destroyed or appropriated by the military or naval authorities during the war, but referring these matters to Congress.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 21.

Major General Grant and staff arrived here last night from Knoxville.

The weather this morning is moderating. Thermomer 24 deg. The river is full of floating ice. Navigation is almost wholly impeded. There is a prospect of a general thaw.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 12.

The Republican's Memphis correspondent says that two important propositions have recently been made by the rebel authorities to the Federal Government:—1st. A Quartermaster of the confederate army at Herando, acting by the authority of Richmond officials, has offered to sell to General Grant or Hurlbut all the cotton remaining in a certain district outside the Federal lines. This offer embraces 15,000 bales and is all confiscated cotton, and greenbacks will be taken for it. It is said that Hurlbut favors the purchase and recommends it to be carried into effect.

It is stated that Kirby Smith recently authorized a messenger to Washington to propose to the Federal authorities, to furnish every requisite authority to get out all the cotton in that portion of Red River and Washio district within the rebel control, the money for the same to be paid to the class of officers from the amnesty proposed by President Lincoln, they to retire from the rebel army and go to Mexico. The Republican says editorially of the correctness of this information, we have no doubt, for it comes from a source likely to have the best means of information, also that it would involve the complete disbandonment of the rebel forces in Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, and the immediate return of those states into the union.

Schools in Milton.

I design to notice for publication, some of the more marked characteristics of the schools under my charge, and draw from these such inferences, as will, I hope, interest, if not profit the reader, whether he be teacher, scholar, or parent. No one needs take it unkindly in me, if I state an unwelcome truth, for I intend, as far as may be proper, to deal as faithfully with the facts that come under my observation, that, as it were, the facts themselves, and not the writer, shall be responsible for the statement. I shall first notice the schools in Milton.

The school of District No 1, taught by Edgar M. Clarke, is in an excellent condition, both as to deportment and scholarship;—two facts, indeed, that are rarely found separate. This teacher is an admirable disciplinarian, and has enlisted the interest of his pupils in their studies, so as to secure better recitations than are often heard in schools of a higher grade. His punctuality, self-command and accurate scholarship, are highly to be commended.

The school of district No. 2 is taught by Miranda Sanders, an experienced and successful teacher. The scholars are orderly, but lack that absorbing interest in their studies, that is necessary to superior scholarship.

Esther E. Maine teaches the school of joint district No. 6, Milton and Fulton. Her experience as a teacher, gives her an advantage over many a young beginner, both in governing and instructing her pupils.

The school of district No. 4 is so fortunate as to have the services of Jane C. Bond, who is truly, as well as literally, a teacher of the first grade. Her aptness to teach is only exceeded by her excellent management. Under her orders, all marchings and counter-marchings of the scholars are executed with military precision, according to the most approved school tactics. During an afternoon visit, but one whisper was observed in the school, and all that could distinguish letters, seemed busily employed either in studying their books, or marking their lessons upon slates. Such a teacher is really worth twice her wages for the instruction afforded in the common school branches, even if no account is made of the correct habits formed under such influences.

District No. 5 can never expect to have a school equal to the one last mentioned, until it has a suitable school building. The scholar that enters such a miserable house, must feel himself degraded, and from lowered self respect the step is easy to low actions. Out of nearly two hundred children in the district between four and twenty years of age, the names of only sixty-eight appear on the school register, and but thirty-four of these were present on the day of visitation. Their teacher is Caleb H. Sheppard.

James Richardson has charge of the school of district No. 6. With more decision of character, he would make a good teacher.

Besides the above mentioned, there is a private school in each of the villages of Milton and West Milton, taught respectively by Nellie Waterman and Mary Butts, and in the former place, Milton Academy, under the charge of Rev. W. C. Whitford and six assistants.

CEMETERY ASSOCIATION ELECTION.—The annual election of officers in this association will be held to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, at the common council room, at half past seven o'clock. Every owner of a lot is a stockholder in the association and entitled to a vote. There is a special importance attached to the meeting to-morrow evening, and it is highly desirable to have a full attendance of the stockholders.

THE CONTRACT for supplying the Post Office Department with scales has been awarded to the Messrs. Fairbanks. Their Scales are also very extensively used in the Army, and in the Navy Yards, Custom Houses, Arsenals, Public Works, &c., throughout the country.

MUSTERED IN.—Captain Craig took his company up to Janesville, on Saturday last, to be mustered into the service of Uncle Sam. The company now numbers 80, and a finer or more orderly company has never been in this city. No drinking or disturbance has been made by them, but all have behaved like men and gentlemen. It will be a sober company, with sober officers, and will be a credit to the city and county in which they were raised.—Beloit Journal.

We can vouch for the truth of all the Journal says in reference to this company. In fact no finer specimens of men have gone to the war, than those just sent out by Rock county.

DINNER TO THE SIXTH REGIMENT.—Arrangements are making by the Milwaukeeans to give the Sixth regiment a reception dinner on their return to the State for the purpose of recruiting. The glorious old regiment: it is entitled to all the honors that can be paid to heroes.

WANT TO BE EXEMPTED.—A number of petitions have already been presented to the Senate from Quakers, asking to be exempted from the draft. Their prayer is not likely to be answered.

A NEW AND HANDSOME LOCOMOTIVE ROUND HOUSE.—The Chicago & Northwestern Road have just completed at this point one of the handsomest and most substantial locomotive houses we have ever seen. It was built under the supervision of Mr. Chas. T. Webber, Master Mechanic of this road at this station, and is creditable alike to his skill and the enterprise of the corporation which caused its erection. The building is almost wholly composed of stone, brick, iron and slate, and is therefore fire proof. It has capacity for accommodating eighteen locomotives, and the internal arrangements are most admirable. Generously lighted, drained in the most thorough manner, supplied with water so that the engines can be filled without leaving the house, and fitted up with smoke jacks and ventilators that the air may be pure and free from smoke inside, it is a model structure of the kind. It is a credit both to the company and to Janesville.

THE SEVENTH WISCONSIN ON THEIR WAY TO MADISON. The gallant Seventh Wisconsin—a part of the old Iron Brigade which has won such imperishable honor on the battle field—passed through here this morning on the six o'clock train en route for Madison. They number about 240 men. A furlough of thirty days has been granted them to enjoy the endearments of home and to fill up their thinned ranks. They comported themselves in the most gentlemanly manner while on the cars, winning the admiration of all who saw them. They are worthy and should receive the highest honors a grateful people can pay.

PERSONAL.—Gen. G. H. RUGER, of our volunteer army, has been home several drys, on furlough. Mr. Ruger is well known to the citizens of Janesville, having resided here most of his days, and from the excellent record he has made as a military officer as well as a citizen, they have great reason to be proud of him.

DONATION VISIT.—The Baptist Church and Society at Afton, will make their pastor, Rev. R. F. Parshall, their annual donation visit at their meeting house in Afton, on Thursday evening the 14th inst. A general attendance is desired.

By order of Committee,
S. D. BURLINGHAME.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—The temperance lecture in Lappin's Hall to morrow evening by Rev. H. C. Tilton, should be borne in mind by our citizens. No doubt it will be a good one.

OPENING OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The public schools of our city are to commence their winter term on Monday next, as will be seen by the advertisement of the board of education, to which we call the attention of all interested.

DONATION.—There will be a donation visit at the parsonage of the Congregational society of Emerald Grove, on Thursday, January 21st instant, afternoon and evening, for the benefit of the Rev. C. S. Shattuck. A cordial invitation is extended to all. By order of Committee.

ANTI-FREEZING PUMP.—A reference to another column will inform those in want where they may secure a pump that will not freeze. The proprietors are in town for a few days.

THE YOUNG men's Literary Union meets to-night at 7½ o'clock.

A CARD.
Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Asthma, Bronchitis, Early Stages of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Diseases of Women, and all other Complaints that lead to Consumption.
Are treated in new and eminently successful manner by Dr. Hale, who has a permanent office in the MYER'S HOUSE, JANESVILLE.
Catarrh and Throat Diseases always end in Consumption, hence the necessity of consulting a physician devoted to this speciality, before it is too late. Those who are trying patent nostrums, or waiting for the disease to "wear off" should think, while it is yet time, of those who waited but in vain, and gone down to the grave fallen victims to Consumption. Many might have been saved had they checked the disease while it was a Catarrh or inflammation of the throat.
All are invited to call and investigate Dr. Hale's mode of treatment, practiced by no other physician. Consultation free.
Persons unable to apply at the office may consult by letter, when question lists will be furnished them to give an accurate description of their case.

Schools in Milton.

I design to notice for publication, some of the more marked characteristics of the schools under my charge, and draw from these such inferences, as will, I hope, interest, if not profit the reader, whether he be teacher, scholar, or parent. No one needs take it unkindly in me, if I state an unwelcome truth, for I intend, as far as may be proper, to deal as faithfully with the facts that come under my observation, that, as it were, the facts themselves, and not the writer, shall be responsible for the statement. I shall first notice the schools in Milton.

The school of District No 1, taught by Edgar M. Clarke, is in an excellent condition, both as to deportment and scholarship;—two facts, indeed, that are rarely found separate. This teacher is an admirable disciplinarian, and has enlisted the interest of his pupils in their studies, so as to secure better recitations than are often heard in schools of a higher grade. His punctuality, self-command and accurate scholarship, are highly to be commended.

The school of district No. 2 is taught by Miranda Sanders, an experienced and successful teacher. The scholars are orderly, but lack that absorbing interest in their studies, that is necessary to superior scholarship.

Esther E. Maine teaches the school of joint district No. 6, Milton and Fulton. Her experience as a teacher, gives her an advantage over many a young beginner, both in governing and instructing her pupils.

The school of district No. 4 is so fortunate as to have the services of Jane C. Bond, who is truly, as well as literally, a teacher of the first grade. Her aptness to teach is only exceeded by her excellent management. Under her orders, all marchings and counter-marchings of the scholars are executed with military precision, according to the most approved school tactics. During an afternoon visit, but one whisper was observed in the school, and all that could distinguish letters, seemed busily employed either in studying their books, or marking their lessons upon slates. Such a teacher is really worth twice her wages for the instruction afforded in the common school branches, even if no account is made of the correct habits formed under such influences.

District No. 5 can never expect to have a school equal to the one last mentioned, until it has a suitable school building. The scholar that enters such a miserable house, must feel himself degraded, and from lowered self respect the step is easy to low actions. Out of nearly two hundred children in the district between four and twenty years of age, the names of only sixty-eight appear on the school register, and but thirty-four of these were present on the day of visitation. Their teacher is Caleb H. Sheppard.

James Richardson has charge of the school of district No. 6. With more decision of character, he would make a good teacher.

Besides the above mentioned, there is a private school in each of the villages of Milton and West Milton, taught respectively by Nellie Waterman and Mary Butts, and in the former place, Milton Academy, under the charge of Rev. W. C. Whitford and six assistants.

ALBERT WHITFORD,
Co. Supt., of Schools, Dist., No. 2.
Rock Co.

CEMETERY ASSOCIATION ELECTION.—The annual election of officers in this association will be held to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, at the common council room, at half past seven o'clock. Every owner of a lot is a stockholder in the association and entitled to a vote. There is a special importance attached to the meeting to-morrow evening, and it is highly desirable to have a full attendance of the stockholders.

THE CONTRACT for supplying the Post Office Department with scales has been awarded to the Messrs. Fairbanks. Their Scales are also very extensively used in the Army, and in the Navy Yards, Custom Houses, Arsenals, Public Works, &c., throughout the country.

MUSTERED IN.—Captain Craig took his company up to Janesville, on Saturday last, to be mustered into the service of Uncle Sam. The company now numbers 80, and a finer or more orderly company has never been in this city. No drinking or disturbance has been made by them, but all have behaved like men and gentlemen. It will be a sober company, with sober officers, and will be a credit to the city and county in which they were raised.—Beloit Journal.

We can vouch for the truth of all the Journal says in reference to this company. In fact no finer specimens of men have gone to the war, than those just sent out by Rock county.

DINNER TO THE SIXTH REGIMENT.—Arrangements are making by the Milwaukeeans to give the Sixth regiment a reception dinner on their return to the State for the purpose of recruiting. The glorious old regiment: it is entitled to all the honors that can be paid to heroes.

WANT TO BE EXEMPTED.—A number of petitions have already been presented to the Senate from Quakers, asking to be exempted from the draft. Their prayer is not likely to be answered.

A NEW AND HANDSOME LOCOMOTIVE ROUND HOUSE.—The Chicago & Northwestern Road have just completed at this point one of the handsomest and most substantial locomotive houses we have ever seen. It was built under the supervision of Mr. Chas. T. Webber, Master Mechanic of this road at this station, and is creditable alike to his skill and the enterprise of the corporation which caused its erection. The building is almost wholly composed of stone, brick, iron and slate, and is therefore fire proof. It has capacity for accommodating eighteen locomotives, and the internal arrangements are most admirable. Generously lighted, drained in the most thorough manner, supplied with water so that the engines can be filled without leaving the house, and fitted up with smoke jacks and ventilators that the air may be pure and free from smoke inside, it is a model structure of the kind. It is a credit both to the company and to Janesville.

THE SEVENTH WISCONSIN ON THEIR WAY TO MADISON. The gallant Seventh Wisconsin—a part of the old Iron Brigade which has won such imperishable honor on the battle field—passed through here this morning on the six o'clock train en route for Madison. They number about 240 men. A furlough of thirty days has been granted them to enjoy the endearments of home and to fill up their thinned ranks. They comported themselves in the most gentlemanly manner while on the cars, winning the admiration of all who saw them. They are worthy and should receive the highest honors a grateful people can pay.

PERSONAL.—Gen. G. H. RUGER, of our volunteer army, has been home several drys, on furlough. Mr. Ruger is well known to the citizens of Janesville, having resided here most of his days, and from the excellent record he has made as a military officer as well as a citizen, they have great reason to be proud of him.

DONATION VISIT.—The Baptist Church and Society at Afton, will make their pastor, Rev. R. F. Parshall, their annual donation visit at their meeting house in Afton, on Thursday evening the 14th inst. A general attendance is desired.

By order of Committee,
S. D. BURLINGHAME.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—The temperance lecture in Lappin's Hall to morrow evening by Rev. H. C. Tilton, should be borne in mind by our citizens. No doubt it will be a good one.

OPENING OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The public schools of our city are to commence their winter term on Monday next, as will be seen by the advertisement of the board of education, to which we call the attention of all interested.

DONATION.—There will be a donation visit at the parsonage of the Congregational society of Emerald Grove, on Thursday, January 21st instant, afternoon and evening, for the benefit of the Rev. C. S. Shattuck. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

By order of Committee.

ANTI-FREEZING PUMP.—A reference to another column will inform those in want where they may secure a pump that will not freeze. The proprietors are in town for a few days.

Are treated in new and eminently successful manner by Dr. Halo, who has a permanent office in the MYER'S HOUSE, JANESVILLE.

Catarrh and Throat Diseases always end in Consumption, hence the necessity of consulting a physician devoted to this speciality, before it is too late. Those who are trying patent nostrums, or waiting for the disease to "wear off" should think, while it is yet time, of those who waited but in vain, and gone down to the grave fallen victims to Consumption. Many might have been saved had they checked the disease while it was a Catarrh or inflammation of the throat.

All are invited to call and investigate Dr. Halo's mode of treatment, practiced by no other physician. Consultation free.

Persons unable to apply at the office may consult by letter, when question lists will be furnished them to give an accurate description of their case.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE.

OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

DOCTOR V. CLARENCE PRICE,

ANALYTICAL PHYSICIAN,

LATE OF BUFFALO, N. Y.

Notice for January, 1864.

IT will be remembered that Dr. Price has visited Janesville for three years, restored to health many suffering from affections of the Lungs, Throat, Liver, Heart, Kidneys, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Fits, Asthma, Scrofula, Dropsies, Female Complaints, and other diseases called chronic, most having dispaired of a recovery. To the cure of chronic diseases in their various forms and stages, Dr. Price devotes his whole attention. He is not reviving an old worn out system advocated years ago by speculative adventurers, but a method of treatment of 20 years standing, and still pursued in the east with unparalleled success. A system founded on truth, no trifling sacrificing of life to experiments. Knowledge we contend for, not speculation, experiment and quackery! We use no minerals or destructive agent, nor exhaust the energies nor injure the constitution, nor make sick to make well, tear down to build up. We invite honorable investigation, feeling that our cause is just. Those sick and discouraged call upon us—advice gratuitous. Our Philosophy of practice is founded on the Laws of Nature. Our theory of disease the theory of Experience and Evidence—our Materia Medica the boundless forest!

will be for consultation upon diseases generally at Janesville,

The Best is Always the Cheapest.

WARRANTED! WITH

COG WHEELS!

Self Adjusting & Adjustable.

IT is the best and only reliable wringer before the People. It is the most durable machine made, and combines more strength of frame, capacity for pressure and power of action than any of the cheap, NO COG wringers in the market.

Without cog wheels the whole strain of forcing the cloth through the machine is put upon the lower roll, and the cloth is made to act in the place of cog-wheels, to drive the upper roll, causing three times as much strain upon the lower roll as when cog-wheels with our Patent Regulator are used, besides the extra strain upon the cloth. Experience shows that Clothes Wringers without cog-wheels cannot be depended upon.

We have seven sizes, from $5 60 to $30. The ordinary family sizes are No 1, $10, and No 2, $7. They have COG-WHEELS and are warranted in every particular.

It was pronounced superior to all others at the World's Fair at London, 1862. It took the FIRST PREMIUM at the great Fair of the American Institute, New York City, 1863, where the judges were practical mechanics, and appreciated COG-WHEELS.

It took the FIRST PREMIUM at the
New York State Fair..........1862 and 1863
Vermont State Fair..........1863
Pennsylvania State Fair..........1863
Iowa State Fair..........1863
Illinois State Fair..........1863
Michigan State Fair..........1863
And at County Fairs without number.

It will wring anything from a lace collar to a bed quilt. It will wring clothes out of boiling hot or freezing cold water.

If You Don't Believe It, Try It.

We ask none to buy without a thorough test for which abundant opportunity will be given to all.

Furnished to families on trial free of expense.

FLORENCE
SEWING MACHINE.

OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

DOCTOR V. CLARENCE PRICE,
ANALYTICAL PHYSICIAN,

LATE OF BUFFALO, N. Y.

Notice for January, 1864.

IT will be remembered that Dr. Price has visited Janesville for three years, restored to health many suffering from affections of the Lungs, Throat, Liver, Heart, Kidneys, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Fits, Asthma, Scrofula, Dropsies, Female Complaints, and other diseases called chronic, most having dispaired of a recovery. To the cure of chronic diseases in their various forms and stages, Dr. Price devotes his whole attention. He is not reviving an old worn out system advocated years ago by speculative adventurers, but a method of treatment of 20 years standing, and still pursued in the east with unparalleled success. A system founded on truth, no trifling sacrificing of life to experiments. Knowledge we contend for, not speculation, experiment and quackery! We use no minerals or destructive agent, nor exhaust the energies nor injure the constitution, nor make sick to make well, tear down to build up. We invite honorable investigation, feeling that our cause is just. Those sick and discouraged call upon us—advice gratuitous. Our Philosophy of practice is founded on the Laws of Nature. Our theory of disease the theory of Experience and Evidence—our Materia Medica the boundless forest.

will be for consultation upon diseases generally at Janesville,

Hyatt House, Saturday and Sunday,

the 9th and 10th of Jan., 1864; Whitewater, Montour House, the 8th of January. 5wtf

The Best is Always the Cheapest.

WARRANTED!
WITH

COG WHEELS!
Self Adjusting & Adjustable.

IT is the best and only reliable wringer before the People. It is the most durable machine made, and combine more strength of frame, capacity for pressure and power of action than any of the cheap, NO COG wringers in the market.

Without cog wheels the whole strain of forcing the cloth through the machine is put upon the lower roll, and the cloth is made to act in the place of cog-wheels, to drive the upper roll, causing three times as much strain upon the lower roll as when cog-wheels with our Patent Regulator are used, besides the extra strain upon the cloth. Experience shows that Clothes Wringers without cog-wheels cannot be depended upon.

We have seven sizes, from $5 50 to $30. The ordinary family sizes are No 1, $10, and No 2, $7. They have COG WHEELS and are warranted in every particular.

It was pronounced superior to all others at the World's Fair at London, 1862. It took the FIRST PREMIUM at the great Fair of the American Institute, New York City, 1863, where the judges were practical mechanics, and appreciated COG WHEELS.

It took the FIRST PREMIUM at the

New York State Fair.............1862 and 1863
Vermont State Fair..............1863
Pennsylvania State Fair.........1863
Iowa State Fair.................1863
Illinois State Fair.............1863
Michigan State Fair.............1863

And at County Fairs without number.

It will wring anything from a lace collar to a bed quilt. It will wring clothes out of boiling hot or freezing cold water.

If You Don't Believe It, Try It.

We ask none to buy without a thorough test for which abundant opportunity will be given to all.

Furnished to families on trial free of expense.
